

Flower Girl Greetings[®]
magnifying the beauty of God's Word

Our Story

by Beth Ann Phifer

On April 3, 1980 at the age of 23, the Lord Jesus Christ came into my life. He made me brand new on the inside, and I delved into the Scriptures. Prior to this, I had been interested in painting and drawing, but when I met the “Word of God Who lived among us” (John 1:14), the beauty of His Word compelled me to combine words and thoughts with art.

Since 1980, I have given art gifts to encourage others with the beauty I’ve found in Scripture. Most of the artwork was either meant for one person or as a commissioned piece. I kept copies of each piece in a large book.

Why Flower Girl Greetings?

In April 2011, after a stressful time, my husband, Dusty, encouraged me to take a break. It was the rainiest season I could remember. I began digging in our yard and edging the soaked flower beds. I built walkways and collected rocks to line the paths. Our friend, David, split the rocks to reveal the sparkles inside. The garden became a huge canvas of discovery.

The rain was no deterrent to the ten-hour work days. I sat in the mud and praised my heavenly Father for giving me such an extraordinary playground! He created everything with so much love and detail! My soul was renewed, as was my desire to explore new paints and other art forms.

In March 2012, I received strong encouragement from friends to do something with my artwork. At first, I said, “I’ve tried that before,” but one day I began to gather all the art gifts from filing cabinets and portfolios. I spread them out before the Lord and read Ezekiel 37:1-10 over them. I said to the Lord, “Only You know if these dry bones can live.” He brought each piece to life and inspired me to create new art with Scripture in calligraphy.

In July 2012, the process moved forward like a big wave. We hired a website team. A beautiful, young lady named Amanda Wood helped place the art into card files to print and share with the globe! My husband (a business analyst) manages the financial and technological aspects of Flower Girl Greetings and keeps us encouraged and laughing. God left no room for me to think I had anything to do with the birth of Flower Girl Greetings.

Our Mission

Our mission is to magnify the beauty of God’s Word and to make it easy for others to share the power, hope, and beauty of God’s Word in a tangible, lasting way.

The image of the flower girl in our logo represents all of us taking His blessings and returning them in praise to Him and encouragement to others.
